

Getting to Know Our Preschool

In carrying out our mission of providing quality Catholic education within a nurturing environment, St. Stanislaus School offers a preschool program. Our goal is to provide our preschoolers with positive opportunities for growth.

Our mission in the preschool classroom is to:

- Recognize the special nature of the preschool experience
- Help students recognize their self worth as individuals and their ability to contribute as members of a group
- Create an atmosphere conducive to learning, fun, and development
- Integrate the preschool program into the spiritual life of the St. Stanislaus School and Parish communities
- Offer opportunities to develop learning and social skills which will ensure a successful transition to full-day kindergarten
- At No Cost Breakfast, Lunch, and Snack

Knowing the Program Curriculum

Our integrated curriculum consists of developmentally appropriate activities in the following areas:

Religion, health, safety, language, math, social studies, science, music, art, and physical education.

Our activities help to show each child's progress in the academic, social, emotional, physical, and spiritual areas of growth.
